OBITUARY

Johnnie Mae Cummings was christened Johnnie Mae Basic, born to Albert and Lula, on October 5, 1908, in Shreveport, Louisiana. She attended the public schools there and was saved at an early age and was faithful in her spiritual commitment and dedication.

She moved to Chicago in 1935, where she met and married Leon Pryor. To this union one daughter was born, Carol Lee. In 1943 she moved to Los Angeles, where she resided in San Pedro and united with the Basin St. Church of God In Christ, pastored by Eld. Ben Thomas. After moving to Los Angeles, she united with and served under the pastorate of Eld. L. B. Barkley. She served there faithfully until 1958, when she came to Holy Tabernacle Church of God In Christ, under Eld. J. T. Reeder. Here she served faithfully as a good soldier until the end. She served on the Usher Board, Teacher in Sunday School, Pastor's Aid and Church Mother.

She possessed a quiet and gentle spirit that endeared her to those lives that she touched. She was faithful until the end. On Wednesday, January 18th, at 6:30 p.m., she made a quiet and peaceful exit, ushered into a rest that has no end.

She leaves to cherish her memory, one daughter, Carol L. Miller; three grandchildren, Brent, Yvette and Deshon; one sister, Melissa Middleton, all of Los Angeles, and a host of relatives and friends.

. . . And I shall dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
